REPORTS OF THE COMMANDING OFFICERS OF THE SIXTH, SEVENTH, AND EIGHTY-FOURTH

REGEMENTS. The following is the substance of the official reports received by Gen. Shaler from the officers comoding the 6th, 7th, and 84th Regiments during the manding the 6th, 7th, and 8tth Regiments during the riot of July 12:

SIXTH REGIMENT.

HEADQUARTERS SIXTH REGIMENT.

Ool. Wh. H. CHERSERROUGH, A. A. G. and Chief of Staff, First Division: I have the honor to report that the members of any command were ordered to the armory at 16:30 n. m., on restenday, the earlier hour being intended for the issue of fatigue equipments, with which I provided my Quartermaster by purchase.

About 10:30 a. m., I received orders and proceeded with Sour companies H, I, D and F, to the Eighteenth Precinct station house, prepared to cooperate with Capt. Cameron of the police. About 2 p. m., I received orders from Col. Kearney, and proceeded to Eighth-ave, and Twenty-sixth-st., to rejoin the remainder of the regiment apreviously ordered there direct from the armory), and reported to Strig. Gen. Varian and was assigned to the procession. We were surrounded by an excited crowd completely flihing both sidewalks. Several provocations were quieted by the moderation and excellent conduct of my officers. During this, one excited individual made a rush at my Adjutant. Shenfield, presenting a flint-lock pistol heavily loaded. The Adjutant knecked the weapon up and wrested it from the man. Flort; after, one of my skirmishers was struck on the leg by a neavy tub which he prevented a woman from throwing in the procession, as she had previously done with a liandful of ashes. A part of the procession being open to attack by reason of the 20d's column of fours extending some 30 feet beyond that of the sith. I cautioned my leading captain on the first appearance of an attack to take the double turn to fill the space. Immediately there commenced and irregular discharge of brickhats and earthen vessels, followed and companied by pistol shots. Our men had been caution, and we were the provention to sweep the left of all my collipsings. Then came pistol-shots from the awnings and a roof on qur left flams. My men commenced firing upos the mod My illowit any orders whatever; in fact, there was no time. They

GENERAL: In my report I neglected to state—
First: That there were no police either on my fiank or front at the time of theidring, or before or after.
Second: That we had some narrow escapes in the shape of holes through clothing. My cap had a hole, evidently made by a pistol-bail, from the edge of the crown through the side. The dent in the pasteboard, the position of the outlet shows that it was from above. I should not have mentioned this, but understand that you are making a fetailed report, and suppose it to be your intention to make folks know the kind of innocent people the troops had to deal with.

vidual shots fired were only at persons engaged in some hostile act.

The column having halted as above stated, the five companies at the rear commenced moving in column of fours, to fake position at the head of the column. The three companies on the right were in column of fours, and the other two had whee leddinto column, when the volleys fired by the other troops were heard. The immediate stampede of frightened rioters and others upon those companies marching in column of fours, interrupted their march for a few moments, and, while at a halt, a few moments, and, while at a halt, a few moments, and while at a halt, a few moments are persons discovered in the aft of thing pistols or throwing stones from the upper windows and housetops opposite. This reports of are as it relates to any matter that did not companied may away personal observation, is based from the official reports of commandants of commanders.

EMMONS CLARK, Colonel Commanding 7th Regiment.

FIGHTY FOURTH REGIMENT.

HEADGLARTERS, STH KEGMENT, July 12, 1871.

Major Gen. SHALER: I have the honor to report that this regiment, in obedience to Division orders, assembled at these headquarters this morning at 7 o'clock, and was immediately put under arms, and each man served with 40 rounds of ball cartridges.

On reaching the neighborhood of Twenty-fourth-st. On reaching the neighborhood of Twenty-fourth-st. and Eighth-ave., several shots were fired from the windows and housetops, injuring three members of this comband. The firing was apparently returned by the 2th and 6th Regiments, and by the left wing of this comband. Several persons were either killed or wounded by this discharge. The firing was so instantaneous that it was an atter impossibility to prevent it. I being at the right of the command. I used my utmost exertion to check this movement on the part of the troops. This occurred during a halt. I have nothing further to report except that we paraded as far as Coeper Institute, the point at which the procession halted.

Lieut-Col. Commanding 8th Regiment.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE CANADIAN ORANGEMEN ON THE NEW-YORK RIOT.

TORONTO, July 20 .- At a special meeting of the Orangemen of Toronto, resolutions were passed expressing the great gratification felt by the Orangemen here that in spite of the great danger to which the Grangemen of New-York had been exposed, they still remained faithful to the old cry of "No surrender." It was also resolved that a committee be appointed to draft an address to his Excellency the Governor of the State of New-York, and another address to the brave Orange-men of the City of New-York, expressive of the feelings men of the City of New-York, expressive of the feelings of the meeting as set forth in the resolutions; and that when said address shall be prepared and engrossed they be presented by a deputation to be chosen by the said Commitee.

It was further resolved that subscriptions be immediately entered into by all classes of people for the purpose of erecting in this city an Orange hall to be called the Hoffman Commemoration Hall, in which the Orange lodges of the city may meet, and annually commemorate the nothe assertion of freedom on this continent on the same memorable day in 1871, as it was secured in Europe in 1999, by our forefathers at the Boyne. Concerts, excursions, &c., will also be given to raise funds for the above objects.

FUNERAL OF WALTER R. PRYOR.

FUNERAL OF WALTER R. PRYOR. The 9th Regiment assembled at their armory vesterday morning to pay a final tribute of respect to the memory of their comrade, Walter R. Prior, who received fatal wounds in the recent riots. After marching drum-beat to Calvary Church, at Fourth-ave. and Twenty-first-st., the regiment, accompanied by Company

C. 79th Regiment, and a detachment from the 22d Regi-ment, entered the vestibule, and took seats on either side of the center aisie. When the military were seated, the throng which had been gathering for hours on the sidewalks, was admitted, and every seat in the church was occupied. In front of the chancel was a catafalque, covered with a white satin flag, and surmounted by a eross of white flowers. At the foot of the cross was an eval wreath forming a frame-work for a photograph of the dead soldier, and on either side was a wreath and a *mailer cross. The body, dressed in full uniform, was inclosed in a rosewood casket, lined with satin, and bearing the simple inscription: "Walter R. Prior, died July 17, 1871, age 24 years." The Chaplain of the regiment, the Rev. O. E. Flagg, repeated the burial service of the Episcopal Church, and made a brief culogistic address on the character of the deceased. Young Prior, he said, was a soldier by instinct, and early effered his service to his country. He had not n while executing the command of a despot, nor for Disasten alon, but alongs to a righteens cause.

giving his friends every assurance that he died as a Christian soldier. During the address a little girl, attired in white, passed quietly up the aisle and placed a wreath of white flowers on the catafalque, calling forth a comment from the Chaplain—"Actions speak better a comment from the Chaplain—"Actions speak better than words."

At the close of the service, the pall-bearers—eight members of Company A, 2th Regiment—conveyed the casket to the vestibule, where the body was exposed to view. The military passed by the casket in single file, and formed in line on the west side of Fourth-ave, facing the church, and presenting arms. The casket was borne to the hearse, which was heavily plumed and drawn by four gray horses. The procession, headed by the 2th Regiment Band, and including a platoon of teo police, the military escort, the firing party, with arms reversed, and carriages containing the immediate friends of the deceased, passed through Twenty-second-st. and Fifth-ave. to the Forty-second-st. depot, where a special train of 10 cars was in readiness to convey the mourners to Woodlawn Cemetery. The remains were interred, with military honors, in the 9th Regiment plot, by the side of Sergeant Wyatt and Private Paige. AID FOR SUFFERERS BY THE RIOT.

A "Twelfth of July Relief Fund Association" has been formed for the aid of all who suffered by the recent riot, entirely irrespective of party, creed, or class. The President is Dr. John C. Hannan of No. 204 East Twenty-first-st., and the Secretary C. W. McAuliff of No. 659 Second ave. The Committee appointed to receive subscripond ave. The Committee appointed to receive subscriptions include Daniel Grennan, No. 829 Eighthave.; Matthew Olwell, No. 643 Second-ave.; John Springer, No. 826 East Teath-st.; Jeremian T. Dynan, No. 215 Fifth-st.; Philip Abern, No. 830 Avenne A; James J. Trainor, Second-ave., near Twenty-seventh-st.; Michael Carroll. No. 43 Catharine-st.; Charles Horn, No. 53 Market-st.; Jeremiah Murphy, Cherry-st., near Rooseveit, and George Horn, No. 2 Madison-st. A meeting of all who sympathize with the movement will be held this evening at Naylor Hall, No. 235 Third-ave., near Twenty-second-st., to complete the organization.

RIOTS, STORMS, AND SCIENCE.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Six: The present year being remarkable for the scientific forecasting of changes of weather, any in-dications which would seem to elucidate or suggest the action of natural laws as being the principal cause of action of natural laws as being the principal cause of phenomena hitherto inexplicable appear to me worthy of consideration. I have, therefore, to offer a few coincident facts, with a concurrent physical condition which may, upon examination by some of your scientific readers, serve to explain or reconcile them.

Briefly stated, the facts—all occurring between the lith and 19th of July, 1871—are as follows:
July 12,—Serious Orange and Catholic riot in the City of New York.

July 16.—Terrible riot (Roman Catholic and Internationals) in Vienna; terrific hurricane, passing through of New-York.

July 16.—Terrible riot (Roman Catholic and Internationals) in Vienna; terrific hurricane, passing through New-York, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Louisville, Huron County, Mo.; petroleum explosion in Rheims, France, 59 persons killed and wounded; riotous meeting suppressed at Hyde Park, London.

July 17.—Riot of 4,000 persons at Greenwich, near London; typhoon in Japan, seven steamers wrecked.

July 18.—Fearful tornado in Western Tennessee; terrible hall-storm in Western Iowa.

Curiously coincident with these occurrences, is the fact that the mean isothermal time of New-York, as given in Johnston's Physical Allos, touches each of these localities. The occurrence of so many uncommon physical and social phenomena at about the same time led me to look for some hint of a possible law governing them; the result offer to you for what it is worth.

The "epidemics of crime," and the coincidences of apparent accidents, to which Mr. Buckle drew attention, may not impossibly be the result of some natural law, yet to be evolved by study and experiment.

New-York, July 20, 1871.

CARD FROM THE CATHOLIC BISHOP OF COLUM-

CARD FROM THE CATHOLIC BISHOP OF COLUM-

The attempt of certain persons to make the Catholic Church responsible for the late New-York riot is unfair and unjust. Those who were fired upon by the police and military were on the spot in defance of a strict command of their Archbishop, given in all the churches of the city the Sunday previous. The fend between the Orange and Ribbon factions, both made up of a faction of the lower orders of the Irish people, is now centuries old. Religion was made the protext, but both parties practically renounced religion in their strife. The New-York riot was simply a continuation of that strife. To make the Catholic Church responsible for what it forbids, alphors, and condemns, is unfair and unjust. The Rev. D. H. Moore, in Wesley Chapel, last evening, according to the report in 10-day y Journal, was ing, according to the report in to-day's Journal, we guilty of this unfairness:

"A child," said be, "siways toils the secret of the family," and in the secret of the family, and the secret of the secret of the family, and the secret of the family, and the secret of t "A child, said be, store to the secret of the child, see judous, nuclearly newerined parties of the Catholic Charch, we the formations updearing the gatasting ower that shall shake, unless shown, this country from estier to greanference. The principle pleration is a fundamental principle of this country, destroy it, and is lost. The tendency of the whole Catholic Charch, in its teachings is lost.

is broken this country from esher to greanference. The principle of polarities is fundamental spinishes of this country, destroy of, and all is lost. The tendency of the whole Catholic Charch, in its teachings, is toward intoleraper, the tendency of the whole Catholic Charch, in its teachings, is toward intoleraper, the injustice of this consists in assuming that "the untutored, ungoverned portion of the Catholic Church" are following her teachings and fulfilling her spirit; that the "unitutored" are the best taught, and the "ungoverned" the best directed. The fact is those men, when they disobeyed the command given them from the altar, ceased to be children of the Church—and the secret they revealed was the old, old story of human wrath—known since the time of Caim,

To connect acts of yielence like this with the doctrine of infallibility is simply abourd. Is not the Rev. Mr. Moore convinced that he is right in his religious convictions, and that Catholics are wrong! To say no were to call him hypocrite. Yet because he considers himself bound to coerce others! But if he can tolerate, why cannot Catholics? Toleration, to be wholesome, need not be founded on a conviction that there is no religious truth, but rather on the belief that God alone is master and judge of men. This was what actuated the Catholics of Maryland, who were the first to legalize religious toleration in America. This is the principle on which the Catholics of this country who are true to their faith propose to live in peace with their non-Catholic countrymen. They do not think of saying "we may be wrong in our belief, therefore let our neighbor alone." but, "we know our faith is true, therefore we know that we are bound to love our neighbors, no matter of what creed or color, as we love ourselves, of having God alone for master and judge."

We Catholics, Mr. Editor, desire to be citizens of a free Republic, We Xuni nojhing for ourselves, on matter of what creed or color, as we love ourselves, on having God alone for master and judge."

We Ca

fering interests of three-quarters of the people. St. Patrick's Day is an annual oftense, a chronic nuisance, a legalized wrong to four fifths of the citizens of New-York. It costs them annually three millions of deliars in the interruption it causes to business. It is a perpetual menance. It exhibits a horde of Irish Catholics, who estentationsly block the ways, interrupt the crossings, stop the cars and omnibusses, establish a disconnection between the upper and lower parts of the city, provoke needless animosities, and endanger the life of the sick. It is fast growing by allowance into an alleged right, which, when it becomes insupportable, is yet likely to cost at fight compared with which he riot of July 12 was a mere skirmish. The claim of the Orangemen to parade had its only show of reason in the allowance given to St. Patrick. How it could be denied, if the parade of Nov. 14 is to be conceded as a public right, we do not see. But we deny that right.

do not see. But we deny that right.

HALL—WORDS FAIL TO EXPRESS HIS INFAMY.

From The Christian Lender, Universalist.

To surrender to a mob even when its demands are in themselves not unreasonable, is wrong and mischlevous. But when its demands are not reasonable, but, on the contrary, unjust and arrogant, words fail to express the infamy of that act for which Mayor Hall is justiy held accountable. His only escape from popular opproblum, made doubly crushing by the Governor's official condemnation, is to withdraw from the office he has disgraced, and seek forgetfulness in exile. Since the firing on Sumter we have heard no epithets expressive of popular disgust and indignation at all to be compared with those which saluted every ear on the morning of the 1th.

IN THE INTERESTS OF ROMANISM-PRESBYTE-

IN THE INTERESTS OF ROMANISM—PRESBYFERIANS AND THE RING.
From The Nee-York Observer, Probyterism.

The night and day of St. Bartholomew were no longer than any similar revolution of the earth, but whole centuries and thousand of years will not remove the record from the history of Romanism. The scenes which have transpired in this city, the instigation of a riot, murderous in its intent, by Irish Roman Catholics, who had declared their purpose to suppress the annual procession of Protestant Orangemen, by murdering them in the streets if the city authorities would not surrender to the demands of the moh, and forbid the procession; the surrender of the authorities, the indignant uprising of the people, the trimaphant vindication not only of law and order, but of equal civil rights, and equal religious liberty, and equal privileges for Protestants and Romanists; all these are recorded in full in another part of this paper.

Issis; an these are recorded in full in another part of the paper.

We do not accuse the Pope of Rome, nor Archbishop McCleskey, nor the Roman Catholic priests in this city, of getting up this riot. But we do say that it was in the interest of Romanism, and that Roman Catholic hatred to Protestants inspired those who meditated and made the assault upon a Protestant procession, and it is right and proper that the animus of the thing should be stated.

and proper that the animus of the thing should be stated.

We referred, last week, to an editorial article in The New-York Evangetist of the 6th inst., in defense of the corrupt combination of New-York politicians and speculators commonly known as "the Ring." The article is everywhere quoted as indorsing the character and defending the course of a class of men who have been literally preying upon the public. Appearing in a religious paper which is understood to speak for at least a portion of the better class of the community, it was read with profound astonishment, and by none with more astonishment than by those whose character was so singularly indorsed. We should not have occasion to allude again to this article but for the fact that it is now coming back to us from all directions as an expression of the sentiment of the Presbyterians of New-York City-The New-York Evangelist being regarded in some selfas as an exponent of Presbyterian views. We claim to have some acqualatance with the Presby teriang of New-York, and we do not hesitate to say that it uiterly misrepresents their views. It is a gross libel upon their name and character. They will never submit to be made responsible for any apology or defense of such a system of financial corruption and misrule as has controlled the City of New-York for many years, any more than they will to the issuing by the 'Ring,' of such an order as Succriterated.

LACK OF SAGACITY AND COURAGE.

Rarely before has there been seen so lamentable a display of timidity, vaciliation, and tardiness in meeting a grave emergency. The blame of the sanguinary seenes which marred the day, and made it a "black day" in the history of New-York, thus rests upon Mayor Hall and those who acted with him, From this menutable position they cannot escape. Unfortunately, their disgrace cannot wipe out the disgrace which their fully brought upon the great city they misgovern. The people of New-York will deserve to be misruled by Oakey Halls, and Connollys, and Tweeds if they do not at the first opportunity rid themselves of the whole cowardly crew of public plunderers. The law-and-order party are in the majority, and can do this if they will. Is there public spirit enough in New-York to undertake the task!

THE MAYOR AND HIS FRIENDS IGNORAMUSES

THE MAYOR AND HIS FRIENDS IGNORAMUSES

RATHER THAN SINNERS.

From The Christian Usion, Congregationalist.

The Orangemen did not propose either language or action which should intentionally offend any one. The simple fact is, that the event which they proposed to celebrate was intensely dear to them and intensely hateful to those who opposed them. Has a Democrate procession a right to carry motioes and pictures which Republicans dislike! Has a Republican procession a right to carry segends and portraits which Democrats detest! Has a Reman Catholic procession a right to carry saints, and paintings, and the Host, in sight of Protestants! Have Protestants the right to carry an open Bible, and a portrait of Luther, in public procession! Such things are done, and are properly permitted by the authorities, and it never entered a same man's head that they were calculated to effect a "breach of the peace." The attempt to strain a statute meant to regulate the general intercourse of citizens, to cover the cases of societies of men, and the expression of their principles, is not worthy of the Mayor. We are not anxious to convert this binnder of our city authorities to any political end. We do not regard them as sinners above all that dwell in New-York, We consider them simply as men who do not understand the simplest elements of civil liberty, and who, partly from a desire to conclinate numerous votes, and partly from the bewilderment natural to those who are not ascinicing the public liberties in the interest of party politics.

POLICE CHANGES.

RETIREMENT OF CAPT. DE CAMP-PROMOTION OF WOUNDED PATROLMEN.

The Board of Police retired Capt. Morris De Camp of the Second Precinct, yesterday, on a pension of $1,000 a year. Capt. De Camp, who has been on the force 21 years, requested to be retired several months ago, in consequence of his advanced age and illhealth. He resigned in 1856, in consequence of a dis agreement with Mayor Wood, but joined the Metropolitan Police July 3, 1857, soon after its organization. He has long been known has an honest, upright, and fearless public officer. He is a strong Republican, although hither to debarred by his pos tion from taking an active part in politics. He was away on leave of absence when news reached him that trouble was anticipated in consequence of the determination of the Orangemen to parade on the 12th inst. Returning at once, he reported for duty, and gallantly led his command against the rioters on that day. He intends to re gratify his taste for agricultural pursuits.

The following additional Patrolmen, who were wounded during the riots, have been promoted to be Roundsmen: Wm. Dixon, Nineteenth Precinct; Frank H. Curtisa, Twenty-ninth, and Henry W. Tarbush, Thirty-second, The Commissioners will, so far as possible, make promo-tions from among those who were sufferers by the riots, Patrolinan Edward Perkins of the First Precinct was dismissed for violation of the rules.

THE SCHUTZENFEST.

LAST DAY-CROWNING THE SCHUTZEN KING-THE SUMMER NIGHT'S FESTIVAL.

If the last day of the Schützenfest did not draw the attendance which was its due, the fault must be laid to the weather on Wednesday, which caused the postponement and the falling off natural to unexpected delays. The members of the Schützen Corps were early at their work, and blazed away at the remaining wing and body of the eagle with much vigor. But notwith standing good marksmanship and indefatigable energy. the wing did not fall till 12 o'clock, and the members then went to work with a will at the body. This was slowly clipped away, piece by piece, until only a stick, about seven inches long by three wide, was left. This was brought down by George Aerey, who by a close shot, cut the piece from the staff, thereby winning a medal, value $125, and a gold watch and chain, value $150.

During the shooting, Henry Smith, President of the Police Board, appeared, and was taken in charge by the Captain of the Schittzen Corps. He was accompanied by Capt. Gunner of the Nineteenth Precinct, and Capt. Mount of the Fourteenth. After a recess the members were assembled for the crowning of the "Schittzen Corps, about 40 young ladles draped in white, and the invited guests marched to a pavilion erected at the foot of a hill. Capt. Gerdes introduced the successful marksman, and Miss Schlagninger addressed the assemblage, and presented Mr. Aerey with the prize medal. Capt. Gerdes then presented the gold watch, and the New-York Sangerrunde sang. This concluded the ceremony, and the company were left at leisure to promenade the grounds until the evening ball. Excellent order prevailed, for which the Schittzen Corps may thank Capt. Gunner, who succeeded in keeping the grounds clear of the characters that give a bad name to so many ple-nies. In the evening the remaining prizes were distributed, as follows: Middle Crown, Hermann Kappen. Eight Men. Left Tigh. George Werhan. Right Nor. Schitzen Corps. Right Crown, Schützen Corps.
